

Chapter Authors' Transfer of Copyright Agreement and Agreement to Editorial Changes.

Submission of your paper (which is to be included in the proceedings of the 2012 Stormwater and Urban Water Systems Modeling Conference) constitutes:

- the transfer of the copyright from the Author to the Editor, and also
- the understanding that the paper has not been published previously, is not being considered for publication elsewhere, and is not a violation of copyright or prior ownership. If parts of the material (e.g text, figures, or tables) have been published elsewhere, permission for their reproduction must be obtained from the copyright owners and full acknowledgement made in the manuscript.

The manuscript will be submitted free of copyright charges. Only Computational Hydraulics Int., will have the right to publish the contribution throughout the world in book, and in downloadable electronic, form. Upon application from the author, however, CHI may furnish permission to the author to republish any or all of the paper in a professional journal, or conference proceedings.

To ensure consistency in intellectual standards, style, vocabulary, phraseology and format throughout the Monograph as a whole, the Editor reserves the right to make such changes as he considers necessary in the submitted paper.
